

Does every call from your bank start a Financial Reporting race?

Q360

allows instant access to one view of your business, allowing faster and more accurate reporting

Financial reporting has become the key in this economy to keep your business running smoothly. You can't afford not to be prepared with accurate information when your bank or bonding company needs weekly analysis of projects. Don't rely on disconnected systems or complex spreadsheets. Measure project status in one place

Q360™: Track. Manage. Control.

- Track and manage sales opportunities
- Convert Opportunities to Projects for sales handoff
- Manage Projects to automatically drive deferred revenue, revenue recognition, and progress billing
- Control Profit margins, percent complete, WIP, earnings and time tracking in one place
- Enter Time for field work in multiple ways and get instant updates via a web portal or mobile devices

See all your data and run your business with greater control and effectiveness.
